

EDWARD FOSTER

Ed Foster

Presently living in Townville, SC on Lake Hartwell. Married Sharon Bradley Class of 1958. I served a four year apprenticeship in tool and die making at Burroughs Corporation (1958-62). I have traveled to Europe (Netherlands) and South America (Brazil) on business projects.

Children: Two daughters and one son.

Robin Corporation as their Marketing Director for Food Lion grocery chain. Graduated from Birmingham Southern in Birmingham, Alabama and a Masters from International Business Universe in Glendale AZ. Lived in Charlotte, N.C. where my two daughters were born.

Graduated from Savannah School of Arts and Design in illustration, Savannah, GA and lived in Anderson, SC where my son was born. Scott Corporation as Marketing Director for Tom Winkopp developments in Clemson, S.C. (tomwinkopp.com). I'm a very good artist and create all marketing materials and handle all media. I do all illustrations seen on webpage.

Michon Corporation I was the office manager for heavy equipment supplier in Acworth, GA and lived in Marietta, GA. 1979-1988 I partnered and installed a manufacturing business.

Places I lived in Michigan (1963-79) were Clarkston, Oxford and Lapeer.

Moved to Warner Robins, Gerogia in 1988. Was involved in Little Caesars Pizza franchise (1987-99). Moved to Townville in SC in 1999. I am self employed in steel fabrication business. I consult, design and build special equipment.

Hobbies include golf, boating, restoring old cars and tractors with a lot of help from my son. Currently restoring a 1972 Blazer (off frame). Have two old John Deere Tractors, a 1955 Oldsmobile and a 1955 Ford Crown Victoria.

Highlights: Sharon received a lung transplant in June of 2004 in Birmingham, AL at UAB Transplant Center. So far she's doing very good. Plays golf and loves to go to the mountains and does anything she wants to do. She still dabbles in art and follows a few artists in Charleston, SC.

The two oldest grandchildren are in college. They are great kids and good athletes. Our girl, Anslee Herzig, is studing for a RN degree and will graduate from South Carolina University in a few years. Our boy, Austin Herzig, has entered Middle Georgia College in Cochran, Acworth, GA and was elected as an all state player for three years and led his team to the State Championship during his senior year at Milledgeville Georgia State University. He is 6'2", averages 30 points per game and shot 88% from a free throw line during the season. Very proud and it was very exciting.

Don't really plan to retire anytime soon. Still enjoy working and being out there in the world. However, have cut back a lot and play every chance I get. Don't sit down much, just to eat and sleep, ha.

Looking forward to seeing "ya all". (864) 940-3381 Cell / (864) 287-0669 Home
